++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Becoming cloudy overnight for a murky start to Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Staying largely dry through the evening, with some clear spells. Cloud builds from the east overnight, but the odd clear spell remains possible. Breezy throughout, especially in the far southwest. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Friday:
A cloudy start with patchy light rain or drizzle in the east. Cloud cover will break up during the afternoon, giving good sunny spells. A chilly evening under clear skies. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A bright start to Saturday, with patchy frost or fog in places. Generally cloudy for the rest of the period, and largely dry, though light showers or drizzle possible. Mild.
